

AEQQUUS

About

AEQQUUS Resources is a small consulting company focusing on finance, accounting, information technology, and marketing.

Founded by Thom Hill in 2012, we offer flexible rates, sound project management, and a commitment to delivering the best solutions possible.

Principal

Thom has over 20 years' experience in all aspects of small and medium sized businesses.

As a seasoned Accountant, he began his career with Price Waterhouse Coopers and has management experience in the oil & gas and international development industries.

Past clients include: ConocoPhillips, Shell Oil, the World Bank, US Agency for International Development, and numerous Houston area small businesses and holding companies.

Services

Accounting

Our Accounting services focus on ensuring your financial management systems and processes are optimal. We can assist in implementing new systems, trouble-shoot existing systems and processes and generally improve the relevance and reliability of your financial processes. We also provide bookkeeping, year-end tax and audit assistance, and other temporary staff arrangements.

Information Technology

We provide assistance in evaluating and improving your information framework. We specialize in systems implementation support, and can help you convert data and develop new processes in-line with your needs. (article)

Finance

Our Finance services revolve around special assistance and analytics. We can help you analyze your strategic finance programs or do one-off data analysis for a variety of needs.

Marketing

Our Marketing services focus on Marketing Management and Marketing information systems (CRMs and social media).